DEDICATION

In grateful memory of our men, who died in the service of their country. They stand in the unbroken line of patriots who have dared to die, that freedom might live, and grow and increase it's blessings. Freedom lives, and through it, they live----in a way that humbles the undertakings of most men.

ALL IS FORGIVEN--

A pat on the back goes to our local draft board for their hard work. Although we didn't like what they did to most of us, we are aware of the strain, time and hard work, that these men gave to see that our board was on the ball. Our hats are off to:

Mr. Earl Starkey
Mr. Kyle Shewey, Chairman
Mr. Houston Davis

MRS. V. T. STRICKLER

The veterans of Buena Vista, wish to express their appreciation for your column, "Among Our Boys in the Armed Forces."

This column enabled us to maintain closer contact with our buddies, all over the world, throughout World War II.

SOME HIGH-LIGHTS OF ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY

- A County having perhaps as much important history as any in the country.
- A County in which is the Natural Bridge, Famous throughout the nation.
- From it Rockbridge County gets its name. Its first owner Mr. Thomas Jefferson.
- A County where is located an institution endowed by General George Washington, namely Washington and Lee University.
- A County where is located the last home, and the tomb, of General Robert E. Lee, whom Field Marshall Lord Wolseley called "The greatest soldier who ever lived."
- A County where is located the last home of Commodore Maury, "Pathfinder of the Seas, pioneer in meteorology and in establishing the Weather Bureau.
- A County where is located the last home and the tomb of General "Stonewall" Jackson. His home now a hospital named in his honor.
- A County in which was born General Sam Houston, liberator of Texas. President of Texas Republic; Governor of Tennessee; Governor of Texas.
- A County in which was born Cyrus McCormick, inventor of the reaper.
- A County in which was born General Sam Dale, scout, soldier, legislator of Alabama and Mississippi.
- A County in which was born "Big-foot" Wallace, famous in the history of Texas.
- A County in which was born Dr. Ephraim McDowell, pioneer surgeon, "The Father of Abdominal Surgery."
- A County in which are located two nationally known institutions of learning, Washington and Lee University and the Virginia Military Institute.
- A County of whose citizens have written and published no less than sixty-eight books-possibly more, about one author in every 325 of her population.
- A County in which is the only one in the United States, having three representatives in the Hall of Fame in Washington, namely: General Sam Houston, representing Texas; Dr. Ephraim McDowell, representing Kentucky; General Robert E. Lee, representing Virginia.
- The birthplace of Rev. Dr. Archibald Alexander, founder of the Divinity School of Princeton University.
- The birthplace of Bishop William Taylor of the Methodist Church, who preached in more countries of the world than any other man who ever lived. Born in a log-cabin at the foot of Hogback Mountain, a three and a half million dollar hotel in San Francisco bears his name.
- The birthplace of Rev. William Morrison, who by exposing atrocities against natives in Africa by the Belgians aroused international discussions.
- The birthplace of Mr. Sidney Williamson, engineer who built the Gatun Locks, in the Panama Canal, a stupendous undertaking; also water works in Pernambuco, Brazil, and in Florence, Italy.
- The birthplace of Mr. Charles Locker, engineer who enlarged the Saulte Sainte Marie ship canal; the Chicago drainage canal, the Boston water works dams, many of the New York subways, and other outstanding engineering projects.
- The County-seat, Lexington, was laid out on paper, and a name chosen for it, by the State Legislature, in 1777, before even a site of the town had been selected.
- And finally, the only county in the United States of America having the name ROCKBRIDGE.
